

ARIES Workforce Alert

Release 07/29/2022

Good morning:

The ARIES team would like to share some important information for system users.

The release that took place last night, while correcting several issues and adding new features has resulted in an unexpected result that are causing user errors.

The following is a known issues that have been elevated as critical blockers to the system:

- Service tab date range only and allows for a 6-month span which limits the availability of services to be viewed and edited
- This issue applies to all users including the helpdesk

We will update you once the issue has been resolved.

Sincerely,

The ARIES Team
